4.1. Annulment cost insurance PLUS

It is recommended that guests purchase from Bettmeralp Tourism the annulment cost insurance PLUS by ELVIA. This insurance covers the costs prior to departure and during your stay in the case of:

- illness, accident, death and pregnancy
- severe damage to property at home
- delay and failure of the means of transportation during the journey to the destination
- risks at the travel destination
- strikes and natural catastrophes
- unemployment or re-commencement of work

Important: The insurance must be purchased within 8 days of the issuance of the definitive reservation confirmation.

You can request further information about this insurance from Bettmeralp Tourism.

A processing fee of CHF 100.00 in the case of rebooking or annulment will be charged in any case (this is not covered by the ELVIA annulment cost insurance PLUS).

4.2. Substitute person

If the guest cannot make use of the reserved package deal, but is able to designate a substitute, no additional costs will be incurred.

4.3. Obligations in the case of damages

In order to claim the services of ELVIA, the person entitled to file claims upon the occurrence of the insured event must annul the reserved trip through Bettmeralp Tourism without delay and then report the case of damage to ELVIA in writing.

5. Force majeure

In vacation travel extreme events can occur at any time which are beyond the control of Bettmeralp Tourism. If we are prevented from carrying out our broker activity by force majeure, environmental catastrophes or the destructive forces of nature, we are entitled to cancel the reservation without compensation for damages. If other reasons that are likewise beyond our control prevent us from providing service, we can either rebook you into another hotel or cancel the reservation if necessary. If you do not make use of the service for the aforementioned reasons, you will be refunded the amount you have already paid and will waive any further claims. Failure to provide service caused by force majeure is partially covered by ELVIA annulment cost insurance PLUS.

6. Liability

Bettmeralp Tourism is liable for processing the reservation properly on location. However, Bettmeralp Tourism is not responsible for unforeseeable conditions beyond its control, such as:

- failures and/or malfunctions in the water and/or power supply and facilities such as heating, elevators, wellness facilities, etc.
- reduction in the rental value due to environmental damage, temporary increases in noise emissions such as those from building sites, parties, etc.
- Each participant is responsible for his or her own personal insurance protection (in particular accident and health insurance, property and baggage damage as well as loss of baggage). The organizers refuse any liability whatsoever.

Guests are fully responsible for payment of damages provably caused by said guests during their stay. Any damage must be reported to the owner or his/her representative before departure.

7. Late arrival, early departure

Guests themselves are responsible for traveling to their destinations. In the case of late arrival due to malfunctions and disruptions in public as well as private transport (including trains and planes), etc. as well as for personal reasons, no refund will be given. The entire amount is due even in the case of early departure. Late arrival or early departure can be partially covered by the ELVIA annulment insurance PLUS.

8. Complaints

Should defects be present upon occupying the property or appear later, or should you suffer damage or have other reasons for complaints, the lessor must be notified without delay. The lessor will make every effort to remedy the situation appropriately.

9. Statutory limitation period

Claims for compensation for damages against Bettmeralp Tourism, no matter for what reason, expire within one year.

Furthermore, Swiss law applies.

Betten/Bettmeralp (Switzerland) is agreed as the sole court of jurisdiction.
